

Paolo Carta CV

Full Professor at the University of Trento (Law), Paolo Carta teaches Leadership and Governance, and Political Theory (Law and School of International Studies). Besides being the Dean of the Law School (Facoltà di Giurisprudenza) he is also a member of the Executive Committee of Columbia University's Italian Academy for Advanced Studies in America (New York). His research interests include leadership and governance, social norms, and cultural diplomacy. As a researcher at Columbia University's International Observatory for Cultural Heritage, in 2022 he co-organized the exhibition The Giant Heroes of Mont'e Prama: Recovering Ancient Sardinian Heritage. Among his books are A Lost Mediterranean Culture (Columbia University Press, 2023) edited with B. Faedda; Leadership, The Book Project (2022); Lottare per il diritto (2020) Sardinia. Un'isola nell'immaginario anglo-americano (2016).