

Syllabus Course description

Course title	English as a Foreign Language-Specialized Language Course for Economics-Basic
Course code	27327
Scientific sector	L-LIN-12
Degree	Bachelor in Economics and Management
Semester and academic year	1st semester 202-2022
Year	1
Credits	4
Modular	No

Total lecturing hours	40
Total lab hours	-
Total exercise hours	tbc
Attendance	recommended, but not required
Prerequisites	none
Course page	https://www.unibz.it/it/faculties/economics-management/bachelor-economics-management/

Specific educational objectives

The course aims at strengthening students' production and receptive skilld (reading, writing, speaking, listening). Specific educational objectives include the following:

- to improve both grammatical range and accuracy and lexical range and appropriateness
- to improve reading comprehension through skimming and scanning activities of complex texts
- to improve writing skills, with particular focus on the structure of formal academic discourse.

Lecturer	Dr Peter Brannick Office E 3.10 peter.brannick@unibz.it
Scientific sector of the lecturer	L-LIN-12
Teaching language	English
Office hours	To be announced via OLE. To be held via TEAMS/in person
Lecturing assistant	-
Teaching assistant	Roberta Zanoni, office E 3.10, e-mail roberta.zanoni@unibz.it, tel. +39 0471 013279,
Office hours	tba
List of topics covered	Key language for formal communication, including: grammatical constructions, vocabulary building, English-language cohesion & coherence in speaking & writing.
Teaching format	Classes will include exercises of different kinds, including pair & group work. The main teaching format will be the dialogic lesson. Active participation is strongly encouraged.
Learning outcomes	Knowledge and understanding: Knowledge of grammatical structures and vocabulary within the B2-C1 range, understanding of authentic (general and field-specific) oral and written texts (produced for various purposes and representing different varieties of English, as well as different registers and styles) Applying knowledge and understanding: Reporting on/expressing opinions about course-related topics in short coherent oral and written texts Making judgments: Integrating knowledge and understanding acquired in the course (incl. exercises) with knowledge and understanding from other courses to achieve academic and professional purposes especially within the fields of economics, management, and law Communication skills: Communicating (in both speaking and writing) in such a way as to show awareness of intended purposes and addressed audience. Learning skills: Ability to pursue autonomous learning based on the feedback received required readings	The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	Assessment language Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks	or copy all or part of their portfolio will be awarded zero, will be excluded from and recorded to have failed the written exam in that session. A new portfolio will also have to be resubmitted. • Portfolios are valid for the academic year in which they are produced and cannot be carried over to the next academic year. A (different) portfolio may be submitted in the same academic year. • To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: • Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); • writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. English The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and

required readings available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.
achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made
 Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1. 	 Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made
 Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1. 	 Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made 		You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam.
 Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1. 	 Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1. 	 Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made 		Students must pass this section, in order to have their Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. O Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. O Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made		· ·
 Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1. 	 Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made 		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · a Writing Task: O Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. O Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	a Writing Task: O Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. O Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made		written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam.
written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	 written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made	attai anig marko
 Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	 Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made for awarding marks 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1. 	 for awarding marks 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made Fivaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	The evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made
Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: O Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. O Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made Portfolio. Assessment language Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	Assessment language Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made		Oral exam:
An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Exaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	Assessment language Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made		writing task (a choice of an essay or a report)
Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language Evaluation criteria and criteria The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam:	Oral exam: An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language English Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts — Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made vocabulary exercises); • writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language English The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	vocabulary exercises); • writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language English The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made		Written exam:
Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. English The evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: o Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. o Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made		that exam session.
Written exam: Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language English The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	Written exam: • Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); • writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language that exam session. Written exam: Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: Assessment language English Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	that exam session. Written exam: Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Evaluation criteria and criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks Evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: • Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); • writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language English Evaluation criteria and criteria The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made		academic year.
To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. English The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. English The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. Students must pass this is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. A Use of English. This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. O Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. O Use and Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made year. A (different) portfolio may be submitted in the same academic year. • To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: • Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); • writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	year. A (different) portfolio may be submitted in the same academic year. To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language English The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: O Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. O Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made produced and cannot be carried over to the next academic year. A (different) portfolio may be submitted in the same academic year. • To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: • Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); • writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language Evaluation criteria and criteria or as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	produced and cannot be carried over to the next academic year. A (different) portfolio may be submitted in the same academic year. • To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: • Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); • writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made Portfolios are valid for the academic year in which they are produced and cannot be carried over to the next academic year. A (different) portfolio may be submitted in the same academic year. To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. English The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts — Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written. & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	Portfolios are valid for the academic year in which they are produced and cannot be carried over to the next academic year. A (different) portfolio may be submitted in the same academic year. To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: Assessment language Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made that session. A new portfolio will also have to be resubmitted. Portfolios are valid for the academic year in which they are produced and cannot be carried over to the next academic year. A (different) portfolio may be submitted in the same academic year. To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: Assessment language English Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	that session. A new portfolio will also have to be resubmitted. • Portfolios are valid for the academic year in which they are produced and cannot be carried over to the next academic year. A (different) portfolio may be submitted in the same academic year. • To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: • Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); • writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks Evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made or copy all or part of their portfolio will be awarded zero, will be excluded from and recorded to have failed the written exam in that session. A new portfolio will also have to be resubmitted. • Portfolios are valid for the academic year in which they are produced and cannot be carried over to the next academic year. A (different) portfolio may be submitted in the same academic year. • To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: • Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); • writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language English Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks 15% portfolio, 66% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts — Use of English and a Writting Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	or copy all or part of their portfolio will be awarded zero, will be excluded from and recorded to have failed the written exam in that session. A new portfolio will also have to be resubmitted. • Portfolios are valid for the academic year in which they are produced and cannot be carried over to the next academic year. • To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: • Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); • writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. English The evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks 13% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made Portfolios are checked for plagiarism. Candidates who plagiarise or copy all or part of their portfolio will be awarded zero, will be excluded from and recorded to have failed the written exam in that session. A new portfolio will also have to be resubmitted. Portfolios are valid for the academic year in which they are produced and cannot be carried over to the next academic year. A (different) portfolio may be submitted in the same academic year. To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. English Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks Fine evaluation criteria are as follows: The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 65% final written exam, 25% oral exam The written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English and a Writting Task: O Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. O Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum loude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 and C1.	Portfolios are checked for plagiarism. Candidates who plagiaris or copy all or part of their portfolio will be awarded zero, will be excluded from and recorded to have failed the written exam in that session. A new portfolio will also have to be resubmitted. Portfolios are valid for the academic year in which they are produced and cannot be carried over to the next academic year. A (different) portfolio may be submitted in the same academic year. To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit a portfolio. Fallure to do so on time will result in exclusion from that exam session. Written exam: Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Esplish The evaluation criteria are as follows: The evaluation criteria are as follows: The written exam than in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. The written exam is divided into two parts — Use of English and a Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have their writing task marked. Writing Task: Use of English. This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
excluded from and recorded to have failed the written exan that session. A new portfolio will also have to be resubmitted • Portfolios are valid for the academic year in which they are produced and cannot be carried over to the next academic year. A (different) portfolio may be submitted in the same academic year. • To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion fro that exam session. Written exam: • Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); • writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: • An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language Evaluation criteria and criteria for awarding marks The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam • Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exam. • The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English a Writing Task: • Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have the writing task marked. • Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall writter exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. • Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) • Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made available during the course and uploaded to OLE. The level of English required to pass this course is between CEFR B2 C1.	excluded from and recorded to have failed the written exan that session. A new portfolio will also have to be resubmitted. Portfolios are valid for the academic year in which they are produced and cannot be carried over to the next academic year. A (different) portfolio may be submitted in the same academic year. To be eligible to sit the written exam, students must submit portfolio. Failure to do so on time will result in exclusion fro that exam session. Written exam: Use of English (reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises); writing task (a choice of an essay or a report) Oral exam: An individual presentation on a given theme, related to the portfolio. Assessment language English The evaluation criteria are as follows: 15% portfolio, 60% final written exam, 25% oral exam Students must hand in the portfolio to be able to take the written exam. The portfolio forms the basis for the oral exan. The written exam is divided into two parts – Use of English a Writing Task: O Use of English. This is worth 30% of the exam mark. Students must pass this section, in order to have the writing task marked. O Writing Task This is worth 70% of the overall written exam mark. You must pass the written exam to be invited to the oral exam. Oral Exam. A discussion based on the work of the the completed portfoli) Cum laude/extra credit. Extra tasks will be made available for achieving 'cum laude' The specific marking criteria for the written & oral tasks will be made		material provided.Portfolios are checked for plagiarism. Candidates who plagia

|--|