

DIPL. PÄD. ANNIKA SULZER

Main areas of work

- Professional behaviour of professionals with a focus on participation and anti-discrimination in Early Childhood Education and Primary School Education
- Qualitative (international comparative) educational research & methodology
- Regenerative leadership: transformative strategies for the sustainable development of organisations

Academic background

Master Degree Equivalent in Intercultural Pedagogy (Dipl. Päd.)

C.v.O. University of Oldenburg. Study profile: Social pedagogy and migration.

Bachelor Degree Equivalent in Social Sciences

C.v.O. University of Oldenburg. Intermediate diploma. Final grade: very good

Main subjects: Migration theories, theories of globalisation and development policy, empirical social research, compulsory elective subject: adult education

Professional experience

Freelance lecturer

Free University of Bozen-Bolzano, Bolzano (Italy)

Preparation and implementation of laboratories at the Faculty of Education in general education with a focus on early childhood education and social work. Supervision and assessment of examinations.

Topics covered:

- Cooperation with families in heterogeneous life situations
- Quality development in day care centres
- Childhood research on needs, attachment and relationship quality, design of pedagogical interaction
- Education („Bildung“) of young children and the design of inclusive early education settings
- Children's rights and participation

Freelance work for staff of Early Childhood Care and Education settings and Primary Schools in South Tyrol and Germany (talks, workshops, Staff training models)

Scientific collaboration

C.v.O. University of Oldenburg, Oldenburg

Academic collaboration in teaching, project coordination, research and self-administration in the field of 'Educational science with a focus on pedagogy and didactics of elementary and primary education'

Research collaboration

Arizona State University & Free University Berlin

Research project coordination of the German team in the five-country project 'Children Crossing Borders' (Head: Prof. Dr Joseph Tobin/Dr Christa Preissing) on the expectations of parents with a migration background towards day-care facilities for children

Free University of Berlin, Berlin

Project coordination and research planning for the EQUALPRIME project with cooperation partners in Taiwan, Australia, Germany in primary school pedagogy (Chair: Prof. J. Ramseger)

INA gGmbH, Berlin

Scientific support in the BMFSFJ programme 'Vielfalt tut gut - Jugend für Vielfalt, Toleranz und Demokratie' in the funding priority 'Interkulturelles und interreligiöses Lernen'. Formative evaluation for ten pilot projects with reporting, participation in network meetings of the nationwide accompanying scientific research programme

-